Bazaar Beckons Bargain Hunters

Break out your wallets for the bargain event of the year – the 31st annual Pfennig Bazaar hosted by the German-American Women's Club.

The event, a giant three-day flea market beginning Oct. 6 at the Haus Der Wirtschaft, 19 Willi-Bleicher Strasse, in downtown Stuttgart, is open to the general public. Hours are Oct. 6 and 7 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Oct. 8 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Anyone who enjoys a good deal is destined to find something from the 18 stands. Donated clothing for all shapes, sizes and genders, household and decorative items, toys, sporting goods, linens, books and more will be sold.

And not only does the event foster friendships between the German and American communities, but it raises funds for respective quality-of-life programs. Almost 200,000 marks were generated from last year's sales alone. For more information call Bernie Koger, 0711-856-9059, or Milli Kimmell, 0711-726-1333.

Soldiers Can Apply for West Point

Applications for next year's West Point class and the U.S. Military Academy Preparatory School are now being accepted from soldiers.

Each year about 200 active-duty soldiers are offered admission to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., or the preparatory school at Fort Monmouth, N.J. Although some soldiers are offered direct admission to West Point, officials say the majority attend the prep school first.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens, unmarried with no legal obligation to support dependents. They must be high school graduates, under 23 years of age prior to July 1 of the year entering USMA (under 22 prior to July 1 of the year entering the prep school), of high moral character and must have a sincere interest in attending West Point and becoming an Army officer.

Soldiers who meet the basic eligibility requirements, have achieved SAT scores greater than 1000 or ACT composite score of 20 or higher and achieved good grades in a college preparatory high school curriculum are encouraged to apply.

All requirements must be met by April 1 to be considered for an appointment in July 2000. Interested soldiers should contact Maj. Rob Young at 688-5780/civ. 914-938-5780 (stateside) or e-mail (tr9618@westpoint-emh2.army.mil).

Frühlings Fest Volunteers Needed

Spring into action while the leaves fall and have some fun, too. Members interested in helping with the planning of the annual Frühlings Fest Bazaar should contact Regina Bankston at: 0711-859-9291 or e-mail at bankstoj@surf1.de.

Fire Prevention Activities Heat up

Fire Prevention Week activities ignite this year Oct. 3 through 9.

Does your family have a home fire escape plan? Develop one and then practice it during the world's biggest fire drill, The Great Escape, Oct. 6 at 7 p.m. About 250,000 families throughout North America participated in the event last year; 25 lives have already been saved as a direct result. Listen for the fire sirens in your housing area and participate.

Other activities include fire truck visits to local schools and child development centers, and fire safety and extinguisher demonstrations on each installation. For details call Fire Inspector Len Fagan, 421-6192/civ. 0711-72286-192.

Military Women Needed to Mark History

In 1997, local photographer Uka Meissner displayed pictures of 32 female soldiers in a show at the German-American Institute in downtown Stuttgart. Looking at the new millennium, she has planned another show this year at the same location. However, the exhibit will also travel stateside to the Institute for Women in the Military.

The show's objective is to reveal the complexity of the lives of women who serve in each branch of the U.S. military. Each set will have two sets of black and white photographs taken – one in uniform, the other in an outfit that best presents the participant's private side.

Participants will receive a complimentary set of proofs and two 8"x10" enlargements of her choice. Appointments will be made beginning Oct. 1 by calling the Robinson Barracks Arts & Photos Center, 420-6038/civ. 0711-819-6038.

Christmas Special on Portraits

Need the perfect photo for your holiday cards? Get them professionally done.

The Robinson Barracks Arts & Photo Center will offer a Christmas special on portraits Oct. 24 and 30 by appointment only. Prices are $14.95 for 10 photos taken (two different poses and setups), one proof of each photo and 10 Christmas cards featuring the photo of your choice (envelopes are included). For an appointment or more information call 420-6038/civ. 0711-819-6038.

Attention Texas A&M Alumni

The Texas A&M Club of Stuttgart invites all former students and friends of A&M to a get-acquainted meeting Oct. 15, 5:30 p.m. at the Swabian Special Events Center on Patch Barracks. Bar drinks and hors d'oeuvres will be available. Call William Torbett, 07031-276-571, to sign up or for details.

EDUCATION & TRAINING

Time Keepers Training

The next training session for time keepers is Oct. 28 from 9:30 a.m. to noon at the Patch Barracks Theater. All time keepers, supervisors and managers are encouraged to attend. For more information call Searcy Bryant, 421-2804/civ. 0711-729-2804.

HEALTH

Breast Cancer Awareness

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. This year, more than 175,000 women in the United States will learn for the first time that they have breast cancer and more than 43,000 women will lose their lives. Breast cancer is the most frequently diagnosed cancer in women in America; however, early detection and prompt treatment can significantly reduce the suffering and deaths caused by this disease.

The Stuttgart Health Clinic is sponsoring several activities to promote breast cancer awareness in our community.
